Product	Passenger car - Toyota Yaris- sound insulator
Brand	Toyota
EC-type approval/model	Yaris
Product description	The recall concerns vehicles, produced from 13 June 2005 through 9 April 2007 (Japan), or from 7 November 2005 to 17 April 2007 (France).
Risk type	Fire
Risk description	The product poses a risk of fire because of sound insulator underneath the front seatbelt retractor with pyrotechnic pretensioner, located at the bottom of the center pillar. There is a possibility that the sound insulator may become damaged by the high temperature gas generated from the seat belt pretensioner when it is activated in the event of a crash. In the worst case, if the insulator ignites, this condition may result in a post-collision fire.

Product	Candles - Star Lytes 'Rose Garden' Scented candle
Brand	Star Lytes
Type / number of model	Rose Garden Scent
Product description	113g/4oz Rose Garden scented candle (pink) in a dimpled glass jar, contained within cardboard packaging.
Risk type	Fire
Risk description	The product poses a risk of fire because: - secondary ignition may occur in the candle as a result of a secondary wick being formed after carbon debris accumulates in the wax pool. This is a significant safety hazard as the candle is no longer under control. This secondary ignition causes the side and base of the container to overheat which could result in personal injury i.e. burns, - secondary ignition can also be caused as a result of the glass shattering, the spreading of fire to surrounding items by virtue of an enlarged flame height, wax spillage as a result of shattering - all of which constitute safety hazards.
